
NEWS RELEASE

CAMBRIDGE SELF-HELP FOOD BANK

For Immediate Release

November 16, 2009

CAMBRIDGE SANTA CLAUS PARADE

Cambridge - What an awesome day for the Santa Claus Parade. The weather was amazing the hearts and smiles of those attending the Cambridge Santa Claus Parade were certainly warm and welcoming.

The Cambridge Self Help Food Bank would like to take this opportunity to thank the Cambridge Santa Claus Parade committee, Kool FM, KFun, Cambridge Air Cadets, Zehrs Markets and the family and friends of the Food Bank for their assistance in collecting food and Kool FM & KFun for collecting money along the parade route on Saturday evening.

Those attending the parade donated over 3,717 pounds of food and $3,601.51 in monetary donations. We live in an incredibly generous community what a wonderful evening.

“With the number of individuals using the Food Bank increasing the Cambridge Self - Help Food Bank Board of Directors appreciates the communities most generous support”, states Vern Platt, President of the Board of Directors.

Don't forget to watch for the Food Bank truck in the upcoming Hespeler Santa Claus Parades as this community opens their hearts to those in need.

Please contact Pat Singleton, Executive Director (519) 622-6550 ext 103

The Cambridge Self-Help Food Bank offers food and support to people and community groups in need within Cambridge and North Dumfries. We encourage self-reliance through programs and services. The Cambridge Self-Help Food Bank is currently providing food to over 1,500 families per month as well as 35 community organizations receive food from our Food Bank.

For more information on our organization please visit www.cambridgefoodbank.on.ca
To opt out of the news release distribution, please send an email to Pat Singleton psingleton@cambridgefoodbank.on.ca